“ Grandma,
words can not even begin to describe how much i love and miss you. My heart is heavy, but yet has a sense of peace knowing that you were never alone. I know in my heart that Mom was with you through everything, ready and patiently waiting until you were ready, and welcomed you home with open arms. I know the journey home was not easy, but i know Mom showed you the way. It will be difficult knowing that you are not physically here on earth, but you are home, watching and still giving the amazing comfort that you always gave. Please watch over all of us, as I know you already are. God gained an amazing angel when he called you home Grandma. You know, when i see a butterfly, i always think of Mom, and when i see a Hummingbird, I will think of you and how we would sit in the living room and watch them. I love you Grandma, I will not say good-bye, only until we meet again.

“ I'm so sorry to hear of your loss. May there be comfort in knowing that someone so special will never be forgotten.

I'm doubly saddened to learn that Evie preceded her mother. I remember her mischievous antics from high school and know that she is missed by many.

My thoughts and prayers are with you.
