“ I'll never forget sitting on your lap coloring or just sitting there watching TV until I fell asleep. I spent alot of time on that lap. I love you and will see you again soon. Get the crayons ready.

“ Oh how Marge will be missed. We spent hours and hours hearing funny stories and jokes almost daily. She was always a bright part of our days and we worked many days together side by side. I remember when we would grill out back of our house and we'd hear her yell over, "Jimmy is cooking Johnsonville Brats!". I'll never forget her love of little children and animals. She always went ga ga every time someone would bring a dog by the store.... she'd have to get up and make baby noises at it and pet it. I also remember her being very good at crossword puzzles. She was funny, smart and a joy in our lives. We'll miss you Margie!

“ I remember when Aunt Margie and Uncle Jake lived in the house, all of the antiques she had. I remember us kids would sit on her antique couches and see what kind of a butt print we all had..haha...Aunt Margie would sit down just to amuse us!!! Aunt Margie was always so loving and just as fiesty as Grandma Kelly, always joking and getting after Jake.

“ One of my fondest memories is when Margie & Jake came out to California to visit us for the first time. We laughed and joked the whole time. Margie saw things she had never seen before and it was so much fun watching her face light up at the very things we took for granted. That will be forever in my heart.
