“ Charlie was like my dad; in fact, Charlie & Marge were going to name their next daughter (had 3 boys instead) Karla Marie...that's me/my name! So it was meant to be that I would grow close to them, share many happy memories (baseball, backyard pool, Donnie & Marie Osmond sing-alongs and more...) and am considered part of the family, which I cherish! I moved to California after college but visited with Charlie & Marge every trip home. Charlie & I were going to share a joint birthday celebration for our milestone birthdays in 2020, but unfortunately COVID happened and ruined our plans. Fortunately, I saw Charlie in June and got to hug & kiss him one last time. Charlie: you are larger than life, a great Dad, husband, friend, and all-around good guy. Thank you for your love and support, enduring family devotion, strength, humor (I can hear his hearty laugh now), and love of life! You will always remain in my heart.

“ I always remember Uncle Charlie being a great father figure to his children and treated everyone with the utmost respect. I remember when my mother had fallen ill and my brother and I needed somewhere to go. Aunt Margie and Uncle Charlie stepped up and took us in. They treated us as if we were their own children; taking us out to eat and went shopping at the mall. Although we didn't get to see each other as often as I liked, I always held him close to my heart. Uncle Charlie, you will truly be missed!
