“ I miss you every day Dad and always will. I miss the times you would take me with you to the farmers markets and to the auction houses, when I made you the t- shirt that said fat boy nuff said on it. Our times playing spades as a family. There are too few memories that are so precious to me; but these and many more with you are. I would give almost anything in the world to talk to you again. I have so much I never got to tell you, never got the chance to say. You are my father, now and always. I may not have your blood in my veins, but you raised me as your own and that makes you more than just my Dad to me; that makes you my father. I love you and will never forget you.

“Dad, I figured out how to get past that road block with a little help from some crazy sums of... You know! I'm AirBorne bound, with a small stop in at Lackland, after that... Fort "Lost in the woods" Campbell. Wouldn't have made it though if you hadn't taught me to pull those nails! Lol, I love you dad, and miss you, and this is the only way I could think of to start to repay a debt I at least know I owe 101st, but can never fully repay.

“Dad I can't believe it's been two years now since you've gone, I miss you so much. In this time in my life I wish I had your wisdom to guide me. I find myself looking to the stars for you. I know you are watching over us all and I take comfort in that. I love you Daddy, you will always be in my heart.
