“ We met Deb several years ago when we worked with Chris on a business trip. Every year we saw a lovely lady with a quiet sense of humor. She was not only a client but a friend. Our deepest sympathies to Chris and family at the loss of this special lady. She will be missed by many.

“ Chris and family,
We are sorrowed for your loss of Deb, your best friend. We know her memory will live on in your life and your kids and grandkids. Please let us know what we can do. We are praying faithfully for all of you and we'd like to leave you with some verses that are very dear to us, when we just don't understand: Isaiah 55:8 & 9 "For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, saith the Lord. For as the heavens are high than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts." May you feel God's embracing arms lifting you up with strength and wisdom, Chris.
Love,

“ Chris and Family,
Sorry to hear of your loss. I smile everytime think about "our table" on last year's cruise, or see a nail polish bottle. How I blzmed everyone at the table but Deb for the polish, never thinking that the quiet one would be the trouble maker!
We will continue to keep your family in our prayers, that you and your children receive comfort from God with the knowledge that Deb is painfree and with the Lord.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss, Chris. I wish Deb and I could have met once again, as our first "cruising" memories will always include her. She knew how to laugh...and it seemed to be quite infectious. We will miss her dearly. May God comfort you in the days ahead.
