“ Ah, my dear friend, you are sadly missed. I will always remember our days in training at CMI. I giggled this week when I remembered your "glowing" remark - I will never forget that! May your family gather strength knowing they are in my prayers and your smile will light the heavens, always and forever.

“ Delores was my grandmother and she was truly amazing. I wish she was still with me and I wish there was so many more things I could say or do with her. She was a very important women in my life and I really wish she was back. She would never fail to make me or my cousins laugh. I understand she will not see this nor will probably anyone else but I just wish I could still be with her and hear her voice and feel her warm heart against mine one more time.
