“ My sympathies to the family. Dorothy and Glenn were like a second set of grandparents to me and were always so good to my family and I. I'm so glad to have had them along our family's journey.

“ Please accept our condolences. I remember Koffee Klatches in their and our kitchens as a child. Loved her bubbly personality and great smile. Years later, I married a Buck cousin and was delighted to find out she was part of that family. Nancy and Mike, may God comfort and strengthen you and the family. He blessed you with many years with her.
