

Edgar C. Harms

October 5, 1937 - July 17, 2014

Edgar C. Harms, age 76 of Higginsville, Missouri died on Thursday, July 17, 2014, at his home.

Born Tuesday, October 5, 1937 in Cole Camp, Missouri, he was the son of the late Emil Harms and the late Ida (Ehlers) Harms. He and Betty Holtcamp were united in marriage on May 5, 1957.

Ed was a 1955 graduate of Mayview High School and lived most of his life in Higginsville. He worked as a relief worker at General Motors Leeds Plant retiring in 1989. He was a sports enthusiast and a member of the Higginsville Country Club and a former member of the Higginsville Jaycees. He was also a member of Immanuel Lutheran Church in Higginsville and the Lutheran Layman's League.

Surviving are his wife, Betty of the home; two sons, Steve (Dana) Harms of Higginsville and Brett (Kinsey) Harms, both of Higginsville; one daughter, Debbie (Aaron) Riekhof of Lee's Summit, Missouri; two grandchildren, Nick Harms and Damon Riekhof; and one great granddaughter, Peyton Riekhof.

Preceding him in death are three brothers, Clamance Harms, Edwin Harms and Elwin Harms; and one sister, Pearl Duensing.

A Funeral service will be at 2:30 P.M. on Saturday, July 19, 2014 at Immanuel Lutheran Church, 1501 Lipper St. Higginsville with Pastor Marcus Jauss officiating and Donna Owens as organist. Interment will be in the Higginsville City Cemetery.

The family will receive friends from 1:00 P.M. until the time of service on Saturday at the Church. Memorial contributions may be sent to Immanuel Lutheran Church or the American Diabetes Association.

Pallbearers are Nick Harms, Damon Riekhof, Paul Holsten, Alan Duensing, Jeff Holtcamp and Terry Abney.
