“ *I knew her from fishing, when Ronnie and Leonard Stuerke, first came to Higginsville, They fished blackwater with us sometimes. We would go to have dinner sometimes with them, when my dad was home from pipelining. She was a good Cook. and i liked playing over there me and Ronnie. would wrestle about, My condolences to you Ron and to all the family, im sure sorry for your loss, we were abt 10 then that would have been 1968. “ Eunice always came to my Mom's garage sales and we loved to sit and chat with her every year!! She always talked about Todd and what he was up to and how she was so proud of him and his daughters. I am sure she was proud of his new son, too. Eunice always greeted me with a smile whenever I would see her. She will me greatly missed! ”
