“ I met Fae about four years ago when I was introduced to her by my husband Evert Oerding. What a wonderful lady she was. She had been the best friend of Evert's mother and then his sister. They are all rejoicing now in heaven.

“ I remember Mrs. Franke from the lunchline at school. She always had a pleasant word and smile. She had a long and happy life, but it's still hard to say goodbye. Remember that our loved ones are still with us in our hearts. All of my prayers and sympathy go out to you, Barbara, and your family.
