“ When I think of Faye I smile. She was so funny, she was like a second mom to me. Her youngest Lisa and I were good friends growing up. Faye was like my second mom. I have so many great memories, most of them was Faye getting on Lisa and I for giving her grief. She was one tough cookie. When we would get in trouble she would say, "Ahh Lisa, Jamie!! She made the best mashed tators and we loved watching wheel of fortune and Knots Landing together. Lisa stayed with me at my home in Greenwood after moving back from Ark. and Faye and I became even closer when she would spent weeks with us and both my kids loved her and called her Gramma Faye. I like to remeber her as Willa Faye. Gas and Grub Pronto. Rest in peace Momma Faye. I love you!!

“ I've known Faye's family through the years and had contact with her during the time she lived in Harrison and I pastored Faith Church there. She was an enjoyable lady and I feel richer because she was my friend. God bless all of her wonderful family. Rev. Arlis & Jan Thrasher
