

Frederick "Freddie" Haynes

March 24, 1950 - November 7, 2009

Frederick "Freddie" Haynes, age 59, of Higginsville, Mo., died Saturday, November 7, 2009, at Truman Medical Center West in Kansas City, Mo.

He was born March 24, 1950 in Higginsville, Mo., the son of the late Amiel Haynes and Clara Mae (Fields) Haynes.

He worked as an assembly man for Lafayette County Enterprises, retiring in 2008. He lived in Higginsville most of his life. He loved fishing, going to the movies, playing cards and dominoes, and listening to music at family gatherings.

He is survived by his three sisters, Dorothy Bass and husband, Lawrence of Warrensburg, Mo.; Katherine Haynes of Independence, Mo.; and Denise Haynes of Higginsville, Mo. He is also survived by five brothers, Edward Haynes and wife, Arluster, of Odessa, Mo.; Larry G. Haynes and wife, Brenda, of Olathe, Ks.; Ronnie Haynes of Kansas City, Mo.; Leslie Haynes of Higginsville, Mo.; and Reggie Haynes of Independence, Mo.; and a host of nieces and nephews.

Arrangements are being handled by Hoefler Funeral Home, Inc., where the family will receive friends from 1:00 PM to 2:00 PM Saturday, November 14, 2009. Memorial service will be at Hoefler Chapel at 2:00 PM Saturday, November 14, 2009 , Rev. Wilbur Conway officiating. Music provided by Wendell Haynes and Minister Laura J. Pollard, Organists and Evangelist Evelyn Elmore and Joyce Haynes, Vocalists. Inurnment will be at Mt. Muncie Cemetery in Higginsville, Mo.

Honorary pallbearers are Edward Haynes, Larry Haynes, Ronnie Haynes, Reggie Haynes, and nephews.

Suggested memorials are the National Kidney Foundation and the Frederick Haynes Memorial Fund % Denise Haynes.

Tribute Wall

“ Frederick "Freddie" Haynes

October 22, 2023 at 02:42 PM

“ Frederick "Freddie" Haynes

October 07, 2023 at 11:48 AM

“ Frederick "Freddie" Haynes

October 06, 2023 at 07:00 AM

“ Frederick "Freddie" Haynes

January 31, 2023 at 02:49 AM