

Gina Essig

January 1, 1959 - April 22, 2020

Gina Marie Essig (Petrechko), 61 of Richmond, Missouri passed away on Wednesday, April 22, 2020, at Liberty Hospital in Liberty, Missouri.

Born Friday, January 23, 1959 in Kansas City, Missouri, she was the daughter of the late Edmund Petrechko and Betty Petrechko (Onka) of Richmond, Missouri.

Gina graduated from Richmond Missouri High School and worked as a Dispatcher for Ray and Lafayette Counties for a period of time, as well as a trucking company. Gina was a member of the Millville and New Hope Methodist Church. She enjoyed traveling, two of her favorites were New Orleans and Florida. Above all else, family came first; Gina loved spending time with her grandkids, children and friends. She will be sorely missed by many.

Surviving are her mother, Betty Onka of Richmond; two sons, William (Diana) Summers of Higginsville, MO, and Camden (Erica) Summers of Camden, MO; one daughter, Sarah Brown of Richmond; one brother, Stephen Petrechko of Richmond; 6 grandchildren, Tori Blakeman, Grace Brown, Brooklyn Summers, Jacob Williams, Abby Summers, Emma Leslie; and one great-grandchild, Harper Blakeman.

She was preceded in death by her father, three brothers, Eddie Petrechko, James Petrechko and Mark Petrechko.

“ (Hello' its Gina, when I called and received her voice mail, I last spoke to her just B-4 she passed. she stated to me she was feeling good, sounded good on the phone. then had not talk to her for a bit' so I called her Tuesday 23, June, her brother Steven answered her phone' that's when I found out, WHAT A SHOCK, OMG. We worked to gather at the same Towing company for a few years and became good friends, I had called her because I had not heard from her for a bit' I was one of many to be contacted in the event of her death, we talked about this, but not contacted. Yes she loved her kids an grand kids, I am still in shock, and will miss her. I just hope that all the folks that were close to her know? Jim Worland
