“ Ginger:

I do not know where to begin. You have been a part of my life since I was around 5 years old and this is the saddest day of my life now to hear that you have gone.

The days when Chris would fix my little red wagon every time it would break, and you would get me an ice cream cone on the porch of our house. I can remember those days as if they were yesterday.

I also remember the day when you thought Chris had gotten rid of his Army Dress Blues, and I was there when the parts were returned to you from the auction barn. You were very estatic.

Ginger, It was sad to see you move to John Knox, but you had the best apartment there and it looked so much like home. You had great friends there and you took such great care of everyone there. Your move to Meyer Care was very hard for me as well, I did not know what to expect once I saw you there for the first time. I know it had been quite a while since I saw you before that time, but I never forgot about you.

Ginger, today is a very important day for me, as 8 years ago today is when I got something that Chris pressed me to get. That is the Eagle Scout award. Even though it was about a year and a half after Chris had passed, it did it with his spiritual help.

Today though, I know you and Chris are embracing with each other in Heaven where you were ready to go.

Ginger, I wish you the best and I will never forget you or Chris in my lifetime, as I even have that drawing I did of your house (which still doesn't look the same).

Ginger & Family:

I was unable to attend Chris's funeral nearly 10 years ago as I was out of state as previously mentioned, so you can imagine how hard this has hit me today and as we speak I am on the way to embrace my spirits with yours.

God Bless,

John R. Baggs

A wonderful friend on Chris & Ginger's (also the reason why John - her grandson - has his name)
