“ *Rachael, may you have peace now that your Mother no longer suffers. But I know, that the sorrow of loss lingers on. Grab on to the good memories and when the sorrow comes across your days without warning, and takes your breath away, just know that God is watching over you and yours. God bless you always as you have been a blessing to your Mother and others.*Kathleen,

“ So sorry to hear of your loss. It is hard when someone so in their prime of life is called to the Lord but we know they are away from the pain and suffering but you will surely miss her. Relive the memories as you will and she will always be in your heart.
