“ Sorry to hear of Jim's passing. He was truly a great man. I worked with Jim at BSPD from 1988-2003. Jim was the calm voice on the radio that helped keep urgent situations under control and was greatly respected by the road patrol Officer's. Thanks for your service to both our country, and the City of Blue Springs. Rest In Peace Jim, you earned it.

“ Jim was a good friend, a great man, a fellow veteran that I had the privilege of working with for a time at BSPD. We will miss seeing him at the Retirees Luncheons. Salute, Welcome Home, and Well Done Solider. We will not forget what you did for us, both at home and in the military service. Blessings, Doc, Chaplain VVA 317 Kansas City Heartland Chapter
