“ It's still hard to believe that he really is gone...However, there are many memories of my dad that my brothers and I do have of him. For me, everytime I think of him I think of cows. I remember all those times that he took me or one of my brothers with him to take of them...but I especially remember one 4th of July after the fireworks show when we came home and discovered the cows had gotten out of the pasture and was in our corn fields. Dad didnt believe us when we said we heard mooing but he soon discovered that we werent THAT Looney!
