“ OK now here is another memory. Mom did not post. After Kay was born she fell off the bed and Mom had to go under and get her. Lol.

“ OK, I have to share a memory that Mom told me, but didn't wanna post. When her and Kay were young, they had to sleep together and apparently Kay wet the bed all the time and then moved over close to Mom so she could get away from it. Just had to post.

“ My memorial to K Price sister. I will miss our almost nightly phone calls when we discussed dark times and happy times, the mess our world is in and family memories .for fun. We made a pack that if I went first, I would save you a seat and if you went first, you would save me a seat... so God decided to take you first on this heavenly journey I remember when you were in first grade, that you were so bored you memorize the ABC's backward, how about the times we laid on the seller and saw pictures in the clouds what imaginations we had! As kids remember singing songs with Mom when we were all in our beds.

I love spending 10 years in mountain Grove and the things we did together was very special to me. What a pest I was when we went on trips together I snored so loud in the motel room that you couldn't sleep... And you were the driver, so sorry for that! Being baptized at the same time is an unforgettable memory along with working with you on church stuff such as by balancing the books, business meetings, floats, and plays. We were quite a team! Miss you dearly in this earthly life, but know that you are home in heaven and at peace with no pain I thank God, in the name of Jesus that when God decides it's my time I will see you at those pearly white gates. “ when we all get to heaven, what a day of rejoicing that will be.” PS keep my seat warm see you soon. Love you, sis. Mary Lou . now readers see Philippians 4:4 -13 and Luke 12:40. And FYI, is it well with your soul?

“ I was my Grandma's little dolly and I'm so grateful she got to meet her fourth generation. The little family unit we had was small but it was ours. We will miss her dearly.
