In his life, he built his own boat, go-carts for himself and his brother, wooden model tractors, and a grandfather clock. He built his own home and even his brother's home. When Kenneth wasn't in his shop working, he enjoyed camping and traveling, fishing, and spending time with family. He will be greatly missed by family and friends.

Surviving are one son, Brian (Laurie) Fisher of Heber, AZ; one brother, Wayne (Trudy) Fisher of Higginsville; two grandchildren, Nathan Fisher and Daniel Fisher.
