“ What a wonderful privilege to have had Kenneth and Grace in our lives for so many years! I especially have many many fond memories through the various connections we shared for so long. Kenneth was "a prince of a man" and such a special example to follow and friend to appreciate and admire.

Diane and Kevin, we hope to be able to join you as you gather with your family and friends to give thanks for and celebrate the gift of your Dad's life.

“ Kevin and family,
I am sharing this one memory of Kenneth, there was an afternoon back in the 70's in which my friend and I walked home from school thru the fields south to his home, at arrival there was a list of chores left for Kevin to accomplish as his father was working elsewhere, we were wanting to run and do what kids do, knowing it would take half the time if I helped we set out to get the work done. after a few hours we were off playing, not half hour went by when Ken showed up with a look on his face that ----? He scolded Kevin, but his list was completed as we acknowledged. as I recall his words were, you see that sun when it goes down you may play you should have looked me up and I'de gave you more to do and young man thanks for helping but you need to go home.
wow!!! what a work ethic he had bestowed on me that day I mean this in a good way I'm a better person to have known him, thanks Kevin and Diane for being my friend
