“ To know Uncle Leo was to love him. He was an inspiration to all of us. I 'll miss our telephone calls and the opportunity to reminisce about the Quarti Family. He was always excited to relate his casino adventures. Bob, you and your family can be comforted knowing that you gave him the love, care and support that made his final years happy. May your cherished memories console you in your grief. Know that I will always remember your dad with love and admiration. Jane
