“Lois was always wonderful to me and helped take care of me, Bob and all the kids in the neighborhood. We had a great upbringing and Lois was a part of that. I'll never forget her.

“My brother told us of Lois's passing a few days ago. I will always remember her and Uncle Leo as wonderful people from a summer I spent in Mo. as a kid. You have always been in our thoughts out here.

“Uncle Leo, Christine, Begi and Bob, I just read about Aunt Lois's journey to heaven August 4th. As a kid I have such great memories of our yearly vacations to Higginsville and the fun we had visiting and being with all of you. Our deepest sympathy in the loss of your wife and mother. “ Leo,

We went to your house again this year for Halloween, like we have every year since we moved, Only to discover your place was up for sale. I went online to try and find where you had moved and we seen Lois' obituary. We love you both very much and we treasure the times we shared as friends and neighbors for many years. Our hearts are with you and your family Leo and we hope to see you again.

Love,
