“ I loved Aunt Marie's soft, sweet voice, always cheerful. When I was home several summers ago, she had Mom, Aunt Celia and I over for lunch and served some of her home-pickled beets. We all made a bee-line for her gooseberry pie with caramel icing at the Knipmeyer reunion!

“ Hi Dennis! Just saw your mother's obituary in the paper today. Your mom and dad were very special friends of my mom and dad and I'm sure you will miss them as much as I miss mine. But the memories are what keep you going. Our deepest sympathy and see you at the next class reunion.

“ Dennis & Judi, Don & I would like to send our condolences to you & the rest of your family. I remember admiring your Mother's beautiful quilting! What a wonderful talent that she shared with so many. My daughter took her first dance lessons in your parent's basement many years ago. I will always remember your Mother's sweet smile.
