Mark Allen Cahill, 68 of Higginsville, Missouri died on Sunday, June 15, 2025, in Higginsville. He was born Friday, May 3, 1957 in Mayview, Missouri, and was the son of the late Melvin Cahill and the late Naomi (Morgan) Cahill. Mark grew up in Mayview and graduated from Odessa High School. If he wasn't mowing, he could be found outside tinkering with his mowers. Mark was a kind gentle soul and would help anybody in need. He enjoyed being outside and spending time with his friend, Karen Meyer. He did some fishing in his younger years and loved to grill and BBQ. Mark loved his family and enjoyed visits from his grandchildren. His humble smile and friendly voice will be missed by all.

Surviving are one son, Stephen (Sequoia) Tripp of Higginsville, two brothers, Dean (Stacy) Cahill of Mayview, MO and David (Linda) Cahill of Higginsville, one sister, Geneva Cahill of Higginsville; and four grandchildren with one on the way. He was preceded in death by his parents; and one brother, Howard Cahill.

“ Mark was good friend in our elementary years. We once got into a little fight in Mrs Braclays music class because he tried to use my head as a drum with pencils. We both got spanked. He was a good person and my first black friend!
