“ I remember when my grandma used to come sleep in my bed with me when I was little when storms would go through. She would sit up and teach me bible verses. I will miss her. She was an amazing person. I couldn't of had a better grandma than her. Love you grandma.

“ Betty was not only a customer, but a friend for many years, telling me of their trips to texas to fish and how much she loved her husband and kids. Lovely lady. RIP Betty

Betty was a great Christian lady, and very good friend to Joyce and Me. Betty and Nathan were a great inspiration to us, when We accepted Jesus as Savior. Always a great example of Christian love.

I didn't know and Mrs. Goring very well, but whenever I saw her and her husband at the store, I always spoke to them. They were always so friendly. I don't think they really knew who I was, but that was o.k. I knew their children, especially Rick and Brenda and Jason was the best man at Randy and my wedding. Mrs Goring seemed like a real sweetheart and her husband was so devoted to her. She must have been a great Mom because she raised a bunch of good boys. Holding your family close. Jamie Smith
