At the age of 20, she accepted Christ in her life and was baptized. On February 14, 1956 she married Warren Benjamin Stoll. To this union they had a son, David, on December 29, 1956, who passed away at birth. At this point in her life she felt a call to re-dedicate her life.

Warren became a Deacon and together, they visited shut-ins and rendered services to whomever needed assistance. They both loved their church and church family and could not thank them enough for their kindness, love and support over the years.
