“ *diane,
very sorry to hear about your mom's passing. I have fond memories of her being so nice when visiting at your house when we were young. My mother liked her very much, too1

“ *Rosemary and I must have seen each other at least once every day for most all the time we lived next door. We visited each other while the other one ironed clothes. We called each other during the parts of the day when we weren't together.
We talked and laughed about most everything imaginable. We were both at home with each other and enjoyed being together. We loved each other's children - and Bosco, their dog.
Many years have passed, and our visits not so many, but I have always felt the friendship, love and welcome smiles when I "stopped by" just because I wanted to see my friends, and hear about the family.
I loved Rosemary. Now, I'll love the memories, but I'll surely miss her presence.
My sympathy to each one of you, with love and hugs, Alona, Bob and Terri*
