“ I am so sad to find out today that Sally passed away. I only knew her through talking on the phone. She use to call Nurses On-Call for health advice and I was the person that answered the phone to take her information for the nurse. She was such a nice lady and we had many nice discussions about life. I remember when she stopped calling. I called to check on her, but was unable to reach her.

What a sweet lady. My deepest sympathies to her family.
