“ My deepest sympathies to you, Carol. Always remember that Jim and Sean are both watching over you now. I only really knew Sean through Scouts, but all the memories of him are fond. I remember how he lit up when he and Jim came to pick up Cocoa (sp?). He enjoyed her so much. May you have peace that they are both without pain and are always there with you.

“ Carol,
I wish I could change this for you. I can say Sean was fun to pick on and didn't get mad at his radio friends when we did. I talked a few times on the radio with him usually he was on his way to Lexington. Our field day this year after testing my radio with Sean I looked at him and called him you little brat. Sean just looked gave me his usual grin and said I know, It is nice to have fun times to remember. God be with you and the family as you go forward. Linda M.
